Girls' & Boys' State

In June, Brent Jaquith and Adam Dilts attended Boys' State sponsored by the American Legion. This program, attended by nearly two hundred high school juniors from across the state, provides an in depth study of government, particularly at the local and state levels.

Each representative participates in a mock town. Each town, in turn, attempts to solve several real - life issues facing Vermont towns, which include budget problems, tax issues, and law enforcement. Through these issues, individuals gain valuable problem - solving skills.

Another enjoyable aspect of Boys' State was the opportunity to run for government offices. Positions such as town moderator, state congressman, attorney general, and governor were all voted on and filled. Boys' Staters also had the unique opportunity to meet several guest speakers, including the Attorney General, the Secretary of State, and Governor Dean.

Boys' State was indeed a fascinating experience. Representatives learned a great deal about our government and made new friends from across the state.

Led by senior captains Meghan Burke and Alicia Prescott, the Lady Phantoms produced a winning season with a 13 - 9 record. With two promising freshmen, Caitlin Canty and Shelly Oullette, Coach Bruce Baccei and his team were very confident heading into the playoffs. They defeated Craftsbury 60 - 41 in their first round playoff game. This was a memorable game for All MVL team selection, Meghan Burke, as she exceeded the 1,000 point milestone of her career. Unfortunately their streak ended as they were once again defeated by the Canaan Eagles in the quarter - finals. With only the loss of two seniors, the Lady Phantoms hope to come back strong next season.

Varsity Cheerleading

This year the varisty cheerleaders worked hard, had fun, and improved in all areas. Last summer they attended an Elite summer camp where captains Kylee Lawrence and Jennifer Jasmin as well as Jill Markie were named All American cheerleaders. All three girls were asked to participate in the Citrus Bowl in Orlando, Florida. The cheerleaders also hosted an NCA Clinic at PHS and worked with many other local squads. Despite many complications, the cheerleaders went to the State competition. With a little help from two spirited basketball players the squad improved last year's score by 30 points and placed sixth, only 1 point away from taking home a trophy.

The JV Girls' team, coached by Mike Canty, ended their season at 9 - 11. With a roster of only six girls, the Phantoms battled sickness and fatigue all season but still managed to win some tough games. One big win came at Wilmington. They were down by ten points at the beginning of the third quarter but came alive in the fourth quarter to send the game into overtime and eventually go on to win. Their biggest accomplishment of the season though was winning the 1st Annual West Rutland JV Girls' Tournament. They went up against the likes of MSJ and West Rutland, who had previously beaten them in the regular season. After beating MSJ by a considerable margin, they headed into the championship with a lot of confidence and pulled out the win. Coach Canty was very pleased with his team's performance at the end of the season. He thought that they had come a long way and that they were playing great basketball. What a great way to end the season! Congratulations to Coach Canty and his JV Girls' team on a job well done!

Don't let her pass that ball Liza.

Run Kristen, run!

Shyla is putting up a real fight for the ball.

Morgan Urso

Junior High Boys' Basketball

The Junior High Boys' Basketball team had a successful season under the coaching of Ron Henderson finishing at 7 - 6. They had fun and improved tremendously in the second half of the season after a shakey start.

Junior High Girls' Basketball

Frank Buggiani, leader, coach, and friend to the Junior High Girls' team, led them throughout a 2 and 14 season. It was a tough one for the team, overcoming many obstacles. The high points of the season were winning at home in double overtime by 2 points, then returning from Poultney with their second win. They worked hard and stuck together demonstrating great school spirit.

Back row: Coach Buggiani, Krissy Brown, Kayla Gildersleeve, Adrienne Marceau, Reanna Austin, Zarina Williams, Erin Gray, Sarah Voigt, Kristen McCullough, Crystal Loso, Jess Thibeault, Coach Gildersleeve. 1997 Hulbert Trip

This year the 7th & 8th grade had an experience they will never forget at the Hulbert Outdoor Center in Fairlee, VT. Despite some bad weather and some everyday chores: (cleaning toilets - Yuk!), they still had a good time participating in the fun and challenging events. One of the favorite things for them was the ropes course, where students had an opportunity to climb along ropes and ladders as high as 40 feet. This was a great opportunity for kids to learn to work together cooperatively in team-building and problem-solving activities.

New York Trip - 1997

U.S. History students (past and present) began the spring of 1997 visiting the Statue of Liberty, Ellis Island, dining in Chinatown and enjoying the view from the top of the Empire State Building. On Saturday they toured the United Nations, walked up Fifth Avenue past Rockefeller Center, St. Patrick's Cathedral, and browsed in F.A.O. Schwarz, the world's largest toy store. Following that some went to the American Museum of Natural History, others to the Metropolitan Museum of Art, and still others to the Museum of Modern Art. They ended the day on Broadway; some saw "Cats", others "Once Upon a Mattress". On their way home they stopped in Hyde Park and toured the Franklin Delano Roosevelt home and museum as well as the Vanderbilt Mansion. Chaperones included Mr. and Mrs. Sherman, Mr. Bloodworth, Mrs. Brough, and Mrs. Burke.

*A Poem by Abby Ruth '97
for the students at Proctor High School*

yes this is hard,
but right now i'm sitting on the steps,
in the dark remembering what i've done here.

i met my first boyfriend,
went to my first dance,
got into my first fight,
(teachers and friends or so called)
i learned some tough lessons
and made better friends

i learned how to fight my way to the top,
and live with the last place.
i've grown here,
i've learned to live,
and taken the fast track a couple of times.

"i Hate this place"
was and still may be one of my favorite mottos.
but now sitting here i realize that this is the best time.

in three weeks i'll be working and
struggling,
and remembering four fun filled speed
riding years.

so yes you've heard this before,
but instead of thinking about it when
you graduate,
think of it now
and have fun!
